Dear Rose Friends, It's been exciting and challenging putting this rose catalogue together – we trust you'll find it stimulating and helpful when it comes to selecting the best roses for your garden.

In our wildest dreams we would never have imagined 30 years ago when we started in the rose industry, that roses could have such a deeply rewarding impact on our lives – we have had the enormous pleasure of meeting such beautiful people – gardeners are so special!

The future holds great excitement with our new location at CLONBINANE, Victoria also being our home garden where we have the space to plant all the new and interesting rose varieties being released each year. We will conduct regular seminars about all aspects of gardening so that you can learn how to create and maintain the loveliest and most environmentally friendly garden in your street; a beautiful space to welcome you when you come home!

If you need assistance selecting your new roses, please pop into the Rose Farm at CLONBINANE with your ideas and plans – it's a specialty of ours to design and create beautiful rose gardens and our commitment to the environment is to ensure you grow and enjoy magnificent roses in your garden!

Diana & Graham Sargeant,
CONSULTING ROSARIANS

“GRA'S BLUE” ROSE: This highly fragrant patio/ border shrub rose which was bred by Graham Sargeant at Silkies Rose Farm, Clonbinane, from seeds harvested from the rose “Perfume Perfection”. It was a natural cross from an unknown pollen parent.

Plants were budded and sent to the Rose Trial Gardens in Adelaide and Toowoomba in Winter 2012 where they will be assessed by a panel of judges from the Australian Rose Society to determine its ability to withstand harsh Australian conditions without any pampering – it's sure to be a winner!

Be one of the first rose enthusiasts to grow GRA'S BLUE in your garden – a limited number of roses are available for planting NOW!

HEALTHY ROSES

ORGANICALLY NATURALLY!

ORGANIC ROSE MANAGEMENT

At SILKIES ROSE FARM IN CLONBINANE, we are able to consistently produce healthy roses, just as nature intended – naturally! Our success lies in ensuring the nutrition of our plants is in balance as well as being adequate; we work with Nature, using only organically certified products.

Our aim is to grow plants with high levels of vigour rather than trying to make them grow fast. We use and recommend a complete organic fertiliser with trace elements which creates the natural balance needed for better colour, length of flowering season and better vase life. To ensure consistent growth, the fertiliser is applied year round at the rate of one half handful per plant, every 8 weeks.

As part of our ongoing maintenance program, we use “Natrakelp” naturally processed liquid seaweed, “Eco-Oil” botanical oil concentrate insecticide and “Eco-Rose” bicarbonate based fungicide. Our recipe is simple, safe and economical:

To a 10 litre bucket add:

¼ cup Eco-Rose (add some water to dissolve powder)

¼ cup Natrakelp liquid seaweed

¼ cup Eco-Oil (while adding remaining water)

Mix together well and spray over leaves to runoff at least once a month or more frequently at critical periods of the season or if pests or disease occur.

We work on the basis that the healthier the plant, the greater its natural resistance to disease/pests and tolerance of stress. A healthy, well-nourished rose plant will grow well without being pushed; why not do it our way? 100% organically – naturally!

MOST FRAGRANT

Eyes For You

Modern shrub rose bred from the ancient R. Persica with a dark purple 'eye' and intense old-rose fragrance.

Black Caviar

A mass of swirling, highly fragrant dark crimson petals open from black buds and cover the shrub all flowering season.

Charles De Gaulle

Hybrid Tea rose, large multi-petalled, unique warm lilac mauve/blue – one of the finest and most fragrant of all the older mauve roses!

Fiona's Wish

Incredibly beautiful Hybrid Tea rose produces huge blooms of cherry-red with a bronze reverse and enormous fragrance.

Jude The Obscure

A David Austin shrub rose with very large, clotted-creamy blooms with apricot centres and intense spicy fragrance.

Most roses do have a scent!

Take a fresh, open bloom between both hands and take first a light sniff ... are you reminded of citrus, lavender, jasmine, lilac, raspberry, peach, cloves, cinnamon, cedar, moss, vanilla, frankincense or myrrh?

MOST FRAGRANT

Violina

Violina

The magnificent tall bush produces flush after flush of large, highly fragrant China-pink blooms which open to display crimson stamens.

Friesia

Clear, bright, lemon yellow buds of perfection which open to display red stamens and exquisite fragrance. Serrated dark green, healthy foliage

Friesia

Nahema

Nahema

Climbing Rose of such incredible beauty and versatility with a fragrance that surpasses all expectations of how strong a rose fragrance can be.

Oklahoma

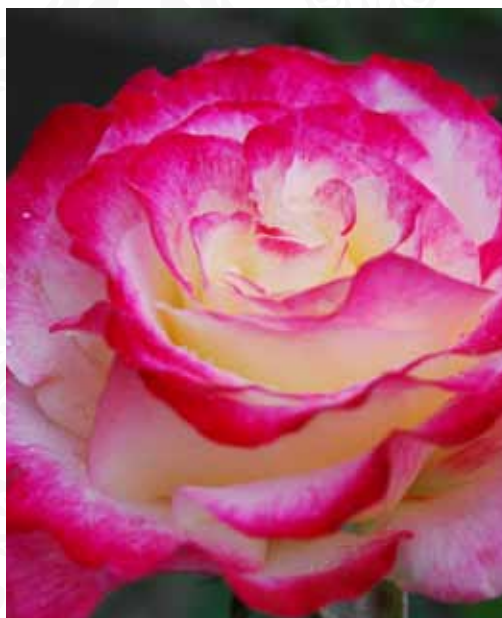

One of the great old Hybrid Tea roses which produces highly-fragrant blooms of rich velvet crimson.

Double Delight

Classical Hybrid Tea rose with large double, high-centred single-stemmed blooms of creamy centre with carmine/cerise border and intense spicy fragrance.

Oklahoma

Double Delight

Roses can have any one of these fragrances and vary with the flower stage of development or the time of day. Warm, still days can be a treat for smelling roses so do stop and smell the roses as many times in the day as you can and each time will be a different sensual experience!

SAY IT WITH A ROSE

Best Friend

Hot plum-pink perfectly formed blooms with incredible perfume and perfect for the vase.

Memoire

Huge, purest white and highly fragrant blooms adorn this magnificent bush with dark green, leathery foliage ... extremely high health rose.

Mother's Love

Palest pink blooms of perfect form with a strong, sweet fragrance on a branching, very healthy bush.

Father's Love

A beautifully fragrant dark red Hybrid Tea rose which has a distinct swirling mass of inner petals – quite unique.

Remember Me

Classic Hybrid Tea shaped blooms with a blend of colour from fawn/copper/orange/red and dense clean foliage.

TIMELESS BEAUTIES

These modern shrub/floribunda roses are exceedingly low maintenance, extremely free flowering and very high-health roses; they should be planted in groups or hedges to truly enjoy their magnificence! Some are new, some have been with us for a very long time and they all deserve a place in your garden!

Sally Holmes

Finally in 2012 this immensely beautiful rose was elected into the World Rose Hall of Fame. Extremely healthy, free flowering and stunning in the vase with bracts of creamy-white tinged pink edged single blooms all season long!

Sally Holmes

Play Boy

This show-stopping beauty will turn heads when planted en-masse as the pointed orange buds open to reveal yellow centres with orange/red edges. Plant this rose for the glossy, shiny dark foliage on dark wood – stunning combination with the showy blooms continually throughout the season

Play Boy

Apricot Nectar

Apricot Nectar

In old and new gardens, this marvellous rose will create a stunning mass of glorious creamy apricot blooms throughout the season on a rather tall and branching shrub. Highly fragrant at different times!

Fire Star

Released as a CFA fund-raiser after the 2009 Bushfires, this stunningly pretty rose will not cease flowering from season start to end and bring delight to all who see her variety of colours changing with the weather patterns

Fire Star

Graham Thomas

Graham Thomas

Grown as a hedge to around 1.5 metres this rose will flower with free abandon and producing masses of golden yellow roses with a delightful fragrance, which are also quite suitable to vase.

TIMELESS BEAUTIES

Summer of Love

Summer of Love

Sheer magnificent beauty. A mass of variable colours from apricot, creamy pink with darker pink border wrapped up into a beautifully healthy bush and awesome lightly fragrant cut flower with light fragrance

Paradise

Incredibly profuse flowering mauve rose with carmine border on each petal

Paradise

Valencia

Valencia

Clotted cream mostly, old-gold in the cooler weather – the glorious buds open to reveal a mass of wavy petals. The medium sized bush is extremely healthy with dark green, leathery foliage and the fragrance on a warm day is awesome!

Tatjana

If dark red, fragrance, prolific bloom, health and shape of bush are what you desire, look no further than this magnificent rose – the wavy petal is glorious and this rose makes the most wonderful standard rose!

Elina

A Queen in many gardens this beautifully large, perfectly formed cream rose on a tall, bushy plant can always be relied upon for a great bunch of roses for the vase ... shame that she has little fragrance!

Just Joey

One of the most popular roses in the past 15 years at least! Always pleasing the rose gardener with masses of wavy-petalled blooms with intense spicy fragrance backed by a foil of dark brown/green healthy foliage

Tatjana

Elina

Just Joey

DELBARD

The Delbard roses from France are quite a stunning collection of extremely high-health roses which produce masses of mostly fragrant flowers continually all season.

Red Intuition

Very tall bush with long straight stems of perfect blooms - ideal cut flower.

France Libre

Rich orange with clear yellow reverse and exceedingly profuse flowering.

Guy Savoy

My "happy smiling rose" which produces an abundance of vibrant blooms from bottom to top of the pillar near my entrance gate - highly recommended rose!

Hommage A Barabra

Opens with a swirling mass of darkest red petals and lasts on the bush or in the vase for weeks with petals turning black before falling neatly.

Claude Monet

Extremely showy mass of various shades of pink with yellow at the base of each petal and lasting cut flower.

10 STEPS TO SUCCESSFUL ROSE GROWING

- 1 Buy only quality rose plants – quality is a two-year old, vibrant and healthy looking rose on virus tested understock with growing instructions and a guarantee.
- 2 Plant the roses into well drained soil – clay is great, especially when blended with quality compost – the soil you have is preferred to imported soil blends.
- 3 Feed your roses regularly – one-half handful per plant every 8 weeks – with balanced organic plant food.
- 4 Plant roses only in a sunny position with a minimum of 5 hours of sun daily – roses are guaranteed to flower profusely and maintain health and vigour.
- 5 Roses love wind and good air circulation to maintain healthy, disease resistant foliage. Companion planting with annuals, perennials and bulbs is encouraged but needs to be maintained.
- 6 Mulch with lucerne, pea straw or the pine bark products – mulch maintains soil moisture, increases worm and microbe production and reduces weeds.
- 7 We recommend a foliar feed program at least once a month with Natrakelp liquid seaweed mixed with Eco-oil and Eco-rose which will increase strength in the foliage to combat pest and disease problems.
- 8 Deep soak rose plants with 20 litres (2 buckets) per bush twice a week to establish; a soaker system with timer will soak to the root zone and save water. roses are very water wise and don't like wet feet!
- 9 Prune regularly. Trim as flowers finish. Summer prune by one third and winter prune by two thirds. Always use sharpened and clean secateurs and wear good gloves for confidence and comfort.
- 10 Take time to smell, love and enjoy the roses in your garden!

Give food, water, sun, air and a little bit of love and the rose will really repay you. But, deny the rose the attention it deserves and you'll get the rose that you deserve.

~ REV. DEAN HOLE, ROSARIAN
